Unleash Your SUPER Woman™

with Life Coach Kim Bettie

phase one: strategic thinking

During phase one, you engage in strategic thinking regarding what really matters and the strengths available now to handle the challenges of reaching your goals. During this phase you complete The 14 Day Experiment™, a dynamic strategy that will help you jump start change, generate break-through ideas and build unstoppable momentum.

phase two: strategic visioning

During phase two you develop a strategic vision that stays in your heart and mind at all times. You translate your vision into action by committing to bold steps that keep you focused and gets you from where you are to where you want to be.

phase three: strategic game plan

During phase three, you are taking bold steps toward living your vision. You will create a G.A.M.E. plan and portfolio of SUPER strategies to overcome any roadblocks you anticipate getting in your way. Your increased confidence and renewed vitality unleashes increased motivation, maximum productivity, and uncommon results.
